ARGUMENT ON NEW STATIONS

Before The Corporation Commission.

Citizens of Shelby Want Seaboard to to Establish Separate Passenger Station—Argument Saturday—Commission In Fayetteville Yesterday Regarding Union Station—Diseased Cotton Bolls in Richmond County.

Raleigh, Aug. 31.—Saturday of this week is fixed by the Corporation Commission for hearing argument pro and con by the Seaboard Air Line officials and citizens of Shelby as to exceptions the Seaboard files to the order of the commission that the Seaboard must provide a separate passenger station at Shelby to take the place of the combination freight and passenger station in use there for so many years. The Seaboard insists that the new station and tracks would cost over $10,000 and necessitate additional dangerous crossings, besides materially and unjustly increasing cost of maintenance. The company prefers to enlarge the passenger section of the present combination station.

Governor Kitchin spent today in Tyrell county attending a county Confederate Veterans' reunion for which he was the principal speaker.

The corporation commissioners have gone to Fayetteville today to hear argument and evidence involving the contest that is on there over a union station demanded by the citizens of the town, the Atlantic Coast Line and the Raleigh & Southport being involved.

Mr. B. A. Kluttz, who has been here for the past five years in the insurance business, leaves today for Charlotte, where he becomes the general agent for the Security Life and Annuity Company of Greensboro. He will be associated with Mr. F. E. Sloan who will go to Charlotte later on.

United States Marshal Claudius Dockery, just back from a stay of several days on his farm in Richmond county, brought with him a number of diseased cotton bolls the widespread presence of which in that locality is causing considerable alarm. Mr. Dockery's cotton is entirely free from the pest, whatever it is, but there are six or eight farms all around his that are affected. A decay spot as large as a pin head and larger appears first on the boll and spreads, finally turning the whole boll black and causing it to rot. He says there seems to be no regularity in the appearance of the pest, there being sometimes one defective boll and on up to half dozen and in some instances every boll on a stalk, these scattered all about a field, too. Mr. Dockery has taken steps to have crop pest experts in both the state and the United States departments of agriculture to examine the specimens he has and pass on the identity of the trouble. He does not think it can be the dreaded boll weevil as there seems to be no insect life about the defective bolls.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Nearly Hundred Thousand Dollars Worth of Property Changes Hands In County During August.

Despite the fact that in real estate circle August is usually the dullest month of the year nearly $100,000 worth of property changed hands in the county during the past month. In the office of the register of deeds three hundred and seventy-one deeds and mortgages were recorded, the value of the property transferred by deed being as above stated. In addition there were a number of deeds of rights of way secured by the Southern Power Company over different pieces of property, the consideration for the right of way not being given.

The outlook is that there will be increased activity in real estate circles during the coming months, the increase being quite noticeable during the past week.

NEW INDEX INSTALLED.

In Register of Deeds Office For Indexing Chattel Mortgages—Another Improvement Soon.

A new index for chattel mortgages has just been installed in the office of the register of deeds which has many advantages over the old system of indexing such papers on record. The book is a Cott loose-leaf index, made by the National Index Co., of Columbus, O., and is being used extensively all over the state. The system has been used for years with success in the national capital of Ohio.

On each page is a key table down the inside margin and by reference to this table a person can tell on what page to find the name of any person he desires. No matter where he opens the book there is the key-table showing the page on which each letter of the alphabet begins, the loose-leaf system being so arranged that as many sub-pages as desired can be inserted under each initial letter.

Deputy Register Roy Jones states that the new system will not only be a great time saver, but considerable dead space will be eliminated, as only sheets in actual use will be in the book, whereas in the books now in use a certain number of pages are inserted in the book when it is made and have to remain whether there is any need for them or not.

Another index to soon be installed and which will prove a wonderful time saver is an index for the minutes of the meetings of the county commissioners. The details of this index were originally gotten up by Deputy Jones and the first book is now in the process of making. This book is being made by the National Index Co. It will be the only index of the kind in use in the state if not in the country. This will be in two sections, the first section being subdivided into 18 sections, one for each township in the county. This section will be devoted exclusively to indexing road petitions and matters pertaining to the county roads, while the second section will be marked miscellaneous and the different items of business will be alphabetically indexed and the number of the page on the minute book shown so the minutes regarding any item can be found in a minutes.

Now the minutes are written in a large book and if anyone desires to ascertain something regarding a certain item of business, unless he knows the date of the meeting at which such business was transacted, he simply has to take the minute book and read until he finds what he is looking for. In some cases this would take hours. With the new system of indexing a matter can be looked up in the time it takes to tell it.

Juniors Meet Tonight.

The members of Greensboro Council, No. 13, Junior Order United American Mechanics are preparing for a gala occasion tonight, the weather permitting. A business meeting will be held in the hall at 8 o'clock, at which reports from the representatives of the State Council will be made and also a number of speeches. Every member is urged to attend the meeting tonight and all visiting Juniors will receive a hearty welcome. It has been decided to postpone the watermelon feast until later on account of the bad weather.

Carried To Roads.

Oscar Robbins, the negro who shot up two negroes on last Saturday, and J. H. Reives, a negro who was caught beating his way on the Southern, were carried to the road force camp near Gibsonville yesterday afternoon by Captain Hiatt. Robbins has to serve one year for shooting a leg off Ed. Coltrane and has yet to receive a sentence for assault on John Young with intent to kill. Reives has to work out a fine of $5 and costs.

Only Four Arrests For Drunkenness.

During the month of August there were only four arrests for drunkenness in Greensboro. In Danville, Va., where there are saloons, the report of the chief of police for the month ending August 27 shows that no less than one hundred and forty six arrests were made for drunkenness. In the Virginia city three hundred and fifteen arrests were made for all offenses, while in Greensboro the total number of arrests for all crimes was less than sixty.

Law Co-Partnership.

Messrs. W. H. Swift and S. Glenn Hudson have formed a co-partnership for the practice of law and will have offices at 117 Court Square. The firm name will be Hudson & Swift. Both gentlemen recently passed the examination before the Supreme court.

FINAL GAME ON LOCAL DIAMOND

Will be Played This Afternoon.

Greensboro and Greenville the Opposing Teams---If Weather Permits Double-Header Will Be Pulled Off—No Games In Carolina Association Yesterday on Account of Rain—Other Baseball Dope of Interest.

All the games around the circuit were postponed yesterday on account of rain. Only in Greensboro and Anderson were games started, and both of these battles were called after the third inning with the scores tied. Eldridge and Reis were in the box yesterday on the local grounds and both appeared to be in good form and if rain had not interfered there would no doubt have been a battle royal. The Champs scored one time in the second frame and the visitors put one across in the fourth and there was nobody down and runners on the second and third corners when the down-pour came. The hits stood at that point, Greenville 3, Greensboro 1.

This afternoon there will be a double-header and Walters and Redfern will probably be the opposing servers in the initial game. The first game will be called at 2:30.

At Anderson.

Rain stopped the game in Anderson yesterday with the score tied, Spartanburg 2, Anderson 2. Gardin and Harrington were in the points for the Spartans and Edmunds and Roth for the Kellyites. A double-header will be pulled off this afternoon.

At Charlotte.

Winston and Charlotte will pull off a double-header this afternoon. Hale and Brazell will in all possibility be the twirlers for the first game.

Redfearn and McFarlin.

Redfearn, who will probably pitch one of the games this afternoon is the premier pitcher of the league. He has pitched 28 games, won 21 and lost 7, giving him a percentage of .750.

McFarlin ranks second in the league with a record of 24 games pitched, won 18 and lost 6, and a percentage of .750.

Claude Derrick.

Claude Derrick, Greenville short stop, has already reported to the Philadelphia Athletics and will possibly play in the world's series, as it looks as if the Connie Mack team will surely win out in the American league. The Philadelphia Record says of Derrick:

"Connie Mack's new infielder, Derrick, was practicing at short before the game and made a great impression. Derrick should surely be able to "dig 'em up."

Manager Tommy Stouch.

Manager Tommy Stouch may not go back to Greenville next season even if there should be another season of the Carolina Association. The astute managerial head is wanted in higher company and two very flattering offers have been made him from clubs in a better class league and he may accept.

Mr. Stouch has an enviable record as a coach for college teams and has had ten years experience among the southern colleges and this may be in a great measure responsible for his luck in discovering so many promising youngsters that he sends to the higher leagues. From 1901 to 1905 he coached the Univerity of Alabama, in 1906 and 1907 he coached the University of Georgia, in 1908 he was coach for Davidson College and for the past two years he has been coaching during the college season for Furman University at Greenville. It is understood that the University of North Carolina wants him for the coming year but as he has already been offered several teams it is not known whether he will accept.

Card of Thanks.

The undersigned desires to take this method of cordially thanking the kind friends, neighbors and family physician for services rendered in connection with the sickness and death of my wife, also my friends of Mt. Pleasant Baptist church for their good offices and generosity at the funeral and burial. N. M. Cooper.

The Appalachian will set a splendid mark in preparedness. All buildings are now complete, many exhibits are being put in place, and the exposition will at its best on opening day.

A UNIQUE BADGE

North Carolina Veterans Adopt Tar Heel Foot.

Durham, Aug. 3.—North Carolina Confederate veterans who will attend the re-union at Norfolk next week are to wear a unique badge, the design being a well shaped foot with tar on its heel.

On this foot, made of pasteboard which is to hang from lapel of coat or from vest, or shirt, as the case may be, is printed in plain letters the following:

1861-1865

The Tar Heel Roll of Honor.

North Carolina with a male population (military age) of 115,000 furnished 127,000 Confederate soldiers; lost 40,375 of her brave sons, double the loss of any other state with 5,000 to spare. First at Bethel—Foremost at Gettysburg

Furthest at Chickmauga—the last at Appomatox.

"God Bless North Carolina."

R. E. LEE.

On this badge is also printed a design of the Confederate flag.

It is a badge of honor all Old Vets will be proud to wear and one that the younger generation will be proud to keep as a souvenir.

Mrs. Sykes Entertains.

Mrs. E. C. Sykes entertained a few friends at her home on Cedar street yesterday morning in honor of Miss Nina Troy, who leaves in a few days for Nashville, Tenn., to enter a training school to become a missionary, and Miss Clara Ware, who will be married to Mr. Kriechbaum, of Baltimore, next Tuesday night. Refreshments were served and the guests expressed their sorrow that Greensboro is soon to lose the two charming and popular young ladies.

Plans For New School Building.

Sketches of plans for the proposed Spring Street school building will be received by the City Board of Education until Sept. 15, at which time plans will be decided on and bids called for. The building is to cost $25,000, exclusive of heating apparatus.

Marriage Licenses.

Forty-one marriage licenses were issued from the office of the register of deeds during the month of August. Of these thirty-one were for white and ten for colored people.

JAMESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL WILL OPEN NEXT MONDAY

Arrangements For Starting Off the New Year's Work Are About Complete.

Jamestown, Aug. 31.—Jamestown State High School will open next Monday, September 5. The new principal of the school, Mr. E. J. Coltrane, of Asheboro, and his wife, Mrs. Coltrane, arrived last week, and arrangements are about complete for the opening. The other teachers will all arrive this week. Few changes have been made in the faculty. Miss Linnie Shamberger, of Hill's store, will assist the principal in the high school department. This will be Miss Shamberger's fourth consecutive year in Jamestown.

The teachers in the elementary school will be the following: Miss Nora Coble, of Greensboro; Misses Mary Wilinson and Florence Moore, of Reidsville; and Miss Kate Phillips, of Thomasville. Miss Helen Groome, of Greensboro, will have charge of the music department.

Jamestown is one of the three public high schools of the county, the other two being located at Pleasant Garden and Monticello. According to arrangement by the County Board of Education, students of high school age living in the western half of Guilford county are admitted to the Jamestown High School without any tuition charges whatever. The people of Jamestown desire that the public know of this arrangement. The only necessary expense will be for board. A good boarding house, under the care of Mrs. Henry Bundy, is located near the school; at which students may secure board at reasonable rates.

Handsome catalogues of the school have recently been issued, and parents who desire to send their children to a first class high school will do well to communicate with the principal. Already the prospects for a large enrollment are unsually good.

NEW TELEPHONE LINE.

Rural System To Be Extended Into Morehead and Friendship Townships.

Citizens living in Morehead and Friendship townships in the vicinity of Friendship and Guilford Station are preparing to install a rural telephone system in that section of the county. Switchboards, or rural "centrals," will be established at the above mentioned places and lines run into the country adjacent. The phones will be connected with the lines of the Southern Bell Telephone Company and the subscribers of the line can talk with their neighbors all over the county as when this line is completed rural lines will be running into nearly every section of the county.

For a time farmers considered a telephone a luxury, but they are fast beginning to realize the practical value of a phone in the farm homes. They are thus enabled to call up friends in town and in many instances can save unnecessary trips at a time when they can employ the time saved to considerable advantage.

For Greensboro Church.

One half of the funds raised by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran church in this State this year will go to the Greensboro church, the erection of which will be commenced at no distant date. The building committee is now at work looking after the plans for the church edifice, which will be a handsome one.

BOYS TELL HOW TO RAISE CORN

Talks Feature of Farmers' Convention.

Winners In Boys Corn Growing Contest In State Tell Old Men How to Raise Corn—Farmers' Wives Also Hold Session—Supreme Court Busy—R. A. Doughton Says Outlook in Eighth District Is Encouraging.

Raleigh, Aug. 31.—The farmers had a busy day in the State convention in session at the A. & M. College today, the farmers and their wives holding seperate sessions. Cattle judging and cattle tick extermination engaged the attention of the men from 7:30 to 11 o'clock. Then there was a talk on "clover crops" by Prof. C. L. Newman, of the chair of agriculture, and a talk by J. W. Myatt, of Johnston county, on the remarkable yield of 47 bushels of wheat to the acre on fifty acres of ground, and a general presentation of the extent and success of state farm demonstration work. The last feature of the morning session was clear-cut talks by Masters Chas. Phillips, of Randolph county, and Lee Black, of Granville county, on their excellent yields of corn, the first named gathering 134 bushels from his acre and the other 76 bushels—a bushel for every pound he weighs. Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, talked of the application of business methods to farming and J. A. Wilkinson, of Beaufort county, told of the vast possibilities for increased yelds and greater profits in many sections of Eastern Carolina through proper drainage.

The convention of farmers wives held a session of note also. T. B. Parker, director of farmers' institutes, Mrs. C. L. Stevens, S. B. Shaw and J. S. Jeffreys being the principal speakers. Mr. Shaw discoursed on canning fruits and vegetables, and Mr. Jeffreys told how to raise, dress and market chickens. The convention will conclude its sessions tomorrow with the election of officers.

The time of the Supreme Court today way taken up with the arguments in four appeals—Robertson vs. Conklin, Tunis vs. Buffalo Mills; Hollowell vs. Railway and the Everett Will case. It look like this entire week may be taken up with the arguments from the first district and then some may have to go over.

Hon. R. A. Doughton, of Alleghany, spent the day in Raleigh on business with Governor Kitchin and with the State Democratic headquarters. He brought the most cheering news as to the political condition in his, the Eighth Congressional district. He is confident that his brother, R. L. Doughton, will easily supplant Congressman Cowles as representative from the Eighth.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundancy.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES.

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Ills of Greensboro People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final break down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferers except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cures every kidney ill.

No need to take the statement of someone living far away as evidence.

Here's a case right in this locality.

M. C. Foster, Graham, N. C., says: "I suffered from almost constant pains across the small of my back and I had but little ambition or energy. Doan's Kidney Pills were so highly recommended that I procured a box and used them as directed. They benefited me in every way and for that reason I recommend them to other sufferers."

GAYNOR AND THE BABY.

Incident Illustrating Kindliness of Stricken Executive.

Beau Broadway in the New York Telegraph.

The absolute democracy and kindliness of the stricken Mayor's character was never more forcibly impressed upon me than in a little incident which occurred upon a Flatbush avenue car recently, when he stepped aboard the car at the Atlantic Avenue Station and swung into the front seat facing toward the rear and rode up to Eighth avenue, where his house is situated, a few doors from the corner, as has been his habit daily during his sojourn at St. James, L. I.

Just previous to the time of his boarding the car a man and his wife whose combined weight could not have been more than 200 pounds had gotten aboard with two of the strongest, fattest babies that ever took a prize in a baby show. The diminutive father took a seat facing the front with one of the children while the wife sat facing the rear with the other, which at once began to explore the whole front seat.

When Mayor Gaynor, escorted by the local inspector of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Line, stepped aboard he smilingly sank into the seat between the mother and the chubby youngster.

The family left the car at Seventh avenue, one block below the Mayor's destination, and the little father attempted to take both of the fat babies in his arms and from the car to the curb. With gentle consideration the Mayor lifted the fat baby from the seat to the father's arms and steadied the little mother in her descent to the asphalt. At his own street the Mayor grabbed his bag and swung to the ground before the car had stopped upon a pair of stout legs fortified by his months of transpontine pedestrianism.

"He comes up every day to look after the Eighth avenue house,' said a Brooklyn Rapid Transit official, "before he goes over to Manhattan."

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scale, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Australia's Stony Desert.

The great stony desert of north Australia was discovered by Captain Sturt, an Australian explorer, in 1845-6. It is north of the river Darling and is about 300 miles long and 100 broad, consisting of sandy dunes or ridges. Its want of trees, except along the creeks, gives the country a sterile appearance. These ridges were probably formed by the joint effect of winds and a gradually retiring sea. According to Captain Sturt, these waters were gradually lost by evaporation or carried to some undiscovered sea. The only vegetation, growing scantily, is prickly acacias in full bloom, all of stunted growth. Water is scarce except in the creeks which are sheltered, and this is generally brackish. Few travelers care to traverse this inhospitable desert.

A Quick Lie.

Presence of mind recently saved an eminent actor his gold watch and chain. While crossing a bridge in a thick night mist a suspicious looking man suddenly loomed up out of the obscurity.

"Can you tell me the time, gov'nor?" he gruffly inquired.

"You are too late, my dear sir," replied the actor suavely. "A gentleman who passed a minute ago stole my watch!"—Exchange.

The Aftermath.

Mrs. DuPuy—I was so surprised to hear that Edith and Mr. Sissingham were married. You know they always used to claim their attachment was merely platonic. Mrs. Kolkremes—Yes, I remember. But now, I fear, they wouldn't claim it was even that. —Lippincott's.

MIND YOUR OWN BUSINESS

By CARL SARGENT CHACE

Copyright, 1910, by American Press Association.

If there's one thing I'd ruther do than all other things it's mindin' my own business. If there's one thing my Mandy 'd ruther do it's to mind somebody else's business. I allus tole her that the principal troubles we git into in this world is pokin' our noses into other people's affairs.

When Rogers and his wife come to occupy the form adjoining ourn I tole Mandy to let 'em alone. Mebbe she could 'a' done it if it hadn't bin thet we could hear 'em quarrelin' clean across the fields a quarter of a mile away. That started Mandy. She was continually a-listenin' and a-watchin' and a-spyin' to see if she couldn't find out somep'n.

It was about the middle of summer when Mandy's mother that lived in the adjinin' county tuk sick. She kep' a-sendin' for Mandy, but Mandy wouldn't go without me. I got in the airly crops and was gittin' ready fur the later ones. Then one day a letter come sayin' Mandy's mother was a-dyin'. That settled it; Mandy hed to go, and I hed to go with her.

One mornin' airly I put the gray mare in the buggy to drive Mandy over to say goodby to her mother. We hadn't slep' more'n half the night from hearin' the quarrelin' goin' on between the Rogerses. Jist as we got on to the road, Mandy, who couldn't keep her eyes off our neighbor's house, saw Rogers go outen his house carryin' the limp figure of a woman in his arms.

"Law sakes!" says Mandy. "He's killed her."

"Supposin' he has," says I. "'Tain't none of our business." And, whippin' up the gray mare, I druv along in a hurry so's Mandy couldn't see any more of it.

Waal, Mandy's mother was a consarned long time dyin'. Mandy wouldn't stay there without me, she wouldn't come home with me and she wouldn't let me come home without her. Consequence was we was gone a long while. After Mandy's mother died, knowin' the crops was sufferin', I got home as soon as possible. As we was a drivin' along Mandy says, says she, "Wonder ef they've discovered the murder," and I says, says I, "Jest you keep your mouth shet."

I was mighty busy after that and didn't think about nothin' but gittin' in my corn, but Mandy she went snoopin' round to find out what was known about the murder. All she could find out was that Mrs. Rogers hed gone away. She asked where Mrs. Rogers hed gone, but no one knowed anything 'bout it.

Fearin' she'd git us into trouble, I tried to stop her questionin', but it wasn't no use. She jest talked and talked till the wimmen suspicioned somethin', then they turned in and did a lot of questionin' on their side.

I stopped her jest in time to prevent her tellin' the whole story; but, considerin' she'd talked so much and nobody knowed where Mrs. Rogers hed gone, people began to suspect thar was somethin' in it.

First thing I knowed Rogers was arrested for murderin' his wife. He couldn't tell where she was, 'cos he said he didn't know. They waren't livin' happy together, and after a bigger quarrel 'n any they'd had before she'd left him. But everybody knowed that, and Mandy 'n me knowed a good deal more. Somehow the idee hed got abroad that he'd murdered her after one o' their fights, and the authorities was determined to find out about it.

When the case was ready for trial sure enough a constable left a paper at the house, summonin' me and Mandy as witnesses.

"There you be," I says to her. "If you'd 'a' kep' yer tongue in yer head you wouldn't 'a' been pestered to tell about somep'n as don't consarn you."

"I'm perfectly willin'," she answered, "to tell what I know—it's my duty. That's what you want to shirk, Elisha; you don't appear to reckon you've got any responsibility in the gov'ment o' yer country."

"A man," says I, "as can't govern his wife's tongue isn't fit to bother his head about his share of governin' millions of men, women and children."

This shet her up fur a few minutes.

The day of the trial come on. Thar wasn't no real evidence agin Rogers—only circumstances pintin' to somep'n. I was put on the stand and questioned, but I didn't hev to say nothin' about seein' Rogers carryin' out a body jist about dawn. I'd tole Mandy, too, not to tell it if she wasn't asked. But, bein' sworn to tell the hull truth and nothin' but the truth, she out with it.

The hull court, spectators and all, was electerfied. Rogers started up to say somep'n, but he was ordered to keep quiet. Funny, isn't it, they won't let the person most interested say what he knows. Waal, the prosecutin' attorney was a-thunderin' agin the murder when the court was electerfied ag'in.

The murdered woman walked in.

"Jedge," she says, "I seen in a paper that my husband was a-goin' to be tried fur killin' me. I jist come back to say that if there had 'a' been any killin' I'd 'a' done it myself."

The court adjourned and the prisoner was set free.

"I'd like to know," says Mandy to Rogers, "whose body you carried out that mornin'."

"The crows was eatin' the corn and I wanted to stop 'em. That body you seen was a scarecrow."

It is said that the scientists are on the track of a cure for leprosy. If they are not now, it may be put down as a sure thing that they will be.

The Columbia State with a perfectly straight face gives us "twenty cents cotton." What's the matter with "twenty cent cotton"? Would the State say "a ten feet pole"?

The county is in good condition financially and it should not be true of it, as Mr. Hood pointed out in his communication yesterday, that it owns the filthiest spot in Guilford county.

The smaller towns grew more rapidly than the big ones, but the rate of grain for the last 10 years is smaller than that for the previous decade, according to the census. And what does this mean? Is it race suicide?

A Washington physician is counselling against excessive bathing. We always knew that Weary Willie and his tribe were a healthy lot, but we attributed it to the abundance of fresh air that they enjoyed rather than to an abundance of dirt.

The September number of the "North Carolina Library Bulletin" has a splendid article on the Greensboro Public Library by Miss Bettie D. Caldwell, the librarian. It is marked by an enthusiasm and a devotion on the part of the librarian that every citizen of the community should know of and appreciate.

Unless Bosses Barnes and Woodruff show the white feather, the Republican convention in New York State will show some bitter fighting. The Roosevelt supporters are thoroughly aroused and will seek ample revenge for the defeat of their champion for the committee recommendation for the temporary chairmanship.

The president of the American Bar Association in a speech in Chattanooga Tuesday declared that there was more wisdom in the ballot box than in the deliberative assembly. Certainly there is less opportunity for sharp politicians to get in their work. It is easier to corral a few than many.

The Kansas Republican convention adopted a progressive platform. Standpat Republicans in the middle west appear to be more the exception than the rule. But the east is standpat and there will be enough of the reactionaries left to engage the insurgents in a party revolution that will give the G. O. P. a rverse from which it will not rally in years.

Iredell Meares, a disgruntled Democrat of Wilmington, has been nominated by the Republicans of the Sixth district for Congress. The Democrats in that district outnumber the Republicans two to one and, making allowances for losses on account of the unfortunate factional fight among the Democrats, the Democratic candidate ought to be able to show Mr. Meares a clean pair of heels along about the ides of November.

Marion Butler's gathering up of the Republican party into his pouch is probably stirring the Democrats more than anything that could have happened. All Democrats and not a few Republicans are very hostile to the former Senator. A Leaksville man writing the News and Observer says:

The Democracy of North Carolina is aroused as it has not been since the overthrow of Russell's administration. A very prominent man wrote me a few days ago that he thought he was out of politics, but since Butler has been put forward he is going into it again with renewed zeal. I consider the leaders now much worse than before the change.

The campaign now beginning will be the hardest fought that North Carolina has seen in years.

Almost the only people rich enough to have jewels worth smuggling into this country are the members of families whose fortunes are based on an unfair advantage given by a protective tariff. And thus the poor people are robbed a-going and a-coming. They are robbed in the first place by excessive duties on articles of necessity manufactured by the tariff beneficiaries. They are robbed in the next place by those same beneficiaries (it is only recently that arrests have been frequent) shirking the duty on luxuries and thus making necessarily larger the duties on necessities.

Mr. Roosevelt insists that a good citizen is one who stands by his family. That plank of the Colonel's platform will undoubtedly find universal approval among right thinking people, but it could hardly be called a contribution to the sum of knowledge touching the vexing problems of the administration of public affairs. The fact is, Col. Roosevelt is considerably more at home discussing the problems of private life than he is in discussing the problems of public life. Undoubtedly he is a fine husband, an affectionate father and a splendid neighbor, but we believe that there are plenty of men in public life to whom he cannot hold a candle in pure statesmanship.

The Antiseptic Qualities of Publicity.

In his article on "Two Revolts Against Oligarchy," in the September McClure's, Amos Pinchot says of the present insurgent movement:

"This failure of the administration to realize the antiseptic properties of publicity both in high finance and in high politics has been a crushing blow to the people's respect for Republican leaders. It has put the administration and the party on the defensive, and has led even the Regular press of the country to describe the course of the President and his advisers as 'government by stealth.' Never before in the history of the party, or indeed of the country, have the people been forced to admit that the greatest officers in the government were filled by men who, for political reasons, would stoop to devious methods designed to furnish the public with impressions contrary to fact. The policy of the administration and the Regulars of doggedly resisting investigation into scandals involving the people's business has aroused, in many sections of the country, a feeling half-way between pity and contempt."

The Picnic Postponed.

The picnic of the Sunday school of the Church of the Covenant, which was announced for today, has been postponed until Friday on account of the inclement weather. The same arrangements already planned will be carried out Friday.

During the month of August sixteen building permits were issued by Building Inspector Milton. The total cost of the buildings aggregated $25,125. Practically all the permits were for new residences costing from $1,500 to $3,500 each.

THE MASONIC HOME.

Local Site To Be Inspected by Committee on Site This Morning.

The committee on site, appointed by the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons to decide on the site for the home for Aged and Indigent Masons and Wives, which was scheduled to be here yesterday to inspect the site offered by Greensboro Masons, did not arrive, or only two members, Grand Master R. N. Hackett and Mr. L. M. Clymer, did. The remainder of the committee will arrive this morning on train No. 44 and will at once be shown over the site.

The committee has visited King's Mountain, Shelby and Mooresville. The other cities bidding for the location of the home are Greensboro, High Point and Southern Pines. All of the cities are working hard to secure the site. Greensboro is easily the most central point for the home, but whether the institution is located here depends entirely on the size of the cash donation offered by local Masons.

"Every cloud has a silver lining," remarked the Optimist. "But the clouds are so far away," complained the Pessimist.

MATTIE KING CAUGHT.

Negro Woman Who Caused Sergeant Jones' Falldown Now Behind the Bars.

Chief of Police Ben Ridge, of High Point, was in the city yesterday. Accompanying him were Mattie King and Mary Liz Johnson, two dusky belles, wanted here for assault with deadly weapons. They were lodged in the calaboose to await a hearing before Judge N. L. Eure this morning. They were arrested by Chief Ridge early yesterday morning.

Mattie King is none other than the woman who on last Saturday night caused the falldown of Police Sergeant C. A. Jones, an account of which was published in Sunday morning's Telegram, she having committed an assault on Laura Hairston, colored, some hours previous to her arrest by the sergeant. That officer appeared well pleased when he saw the woman safely behind the bars.

The Johnson woman is wanted for assaulting Ed Fuller, a recreant lover, with a razor. The offense was committed nearly two weeks ago, but the woman left the city soon afterwards.

The blind man has no sense of sight, but he may have a sight of sense.

Played Them Both Ways.

The French comedian Perlet was extraordinarily thin. A physician recommended him to try some bath in the Pyrenees, so he betook himself to the mineral springs, where he bathed unremittingly but all in vain; he did not increase in size. "Patience," urged the doctor. "There is nothing like our baths for making people fat." One day while Perlet was waiting philosophically in his bath for an embonpoint which never came he heard a conversation in the next room, from which his own was divided by only a thin partition and which was occupied by an enormous woman, fat as the Hottentot Venus. "Doctor," said she, "I am getting tired of this." "Why?" asked the Aesculapius. "I have been here two months." "Well?" "Well, I am as enormous as I was when I came." "A little patience, madame," urged the doctor. "There is nothing like our baths for making people thin." Perlet, hearing these words, sprang out of his bath, dressed, rushed home to his hotel, ordered his bill and left for Paris by the next train.—Argonaut.

A Simple Life.

"And what," inquired the visitor, who was "being nice" to little Bobbie, "are you going to do when you grow up?"

"Be a business man," responded Robert, "like father. He took me down to his office last week, and I'm going to work like him and have a good time."

"And what are you going to do in business?" pursued the visitor.

"Going to do just like dad," repeated the youngster—"catch the train every morning and when I get to the office light a big cigar and sit down at my desk and say there's so much work to do it's no use beginning till after lunch, and then go out with another big man and eat and eat till I can't eat any more, and then go back to business and ask everybody else why the work ain't done, and then get so mad because nobody does anything that I'll go home early and be so tired I can't do a thing except read the paper and smoke more big cigars and swear."—Pearson's.

Florists' Jargon.

The florists have a trade jargon of their own. When a man who grows flowers for a living rattles off something like "paper whites, valleys and Romans" the confused layman has to stop to think what the jumble of words means. It is only the trade way of saying paper white narcissus, lily of the valley and Roman hyacinth. Likewise "mum" is their word for chrysanthemum, and time and space are likewise saved by saying "cyp" instead of cypripedium. So Bridesmaid roses are "maids," American Beauties are "beauties," Perle du Jardin becomes "perle" and is pronounced pearl, while Souvenir du President Carnot is reduced to its last word, just as those other illustrious French rose names, General Jacqueminot and Marechal Niel, where shortened to "Jack" and "Niel" in the heyday of their glory. — New York Press.

A Locomotive's Breathing.

The "breathing" of a locomotive—that is to say, the number of puffs given during a journey—depends upon the circumstances of its driving wheels and their speed. No matter what the rate of speed may be, for every one round of the driving wheels a locomotive will give four puffs—two out of each cylinder, the cylinders being double. If the average circumference of the driving wheel is twenty feet and the speed per hour fifty miles, a locomotive will give, going at express speed, 850 puffs per minute, 52,800 puffs per hour and 1,055 puffs per mile.—London Standard.

Suitable Game.

Uncle Jack came to visit the family just after Johnny had recovered from an attack of the whooping cough.

"How did you amuse yourself while you had it?" he asked.

"Me and another boy who had it played Indians and gave warwhoops," answered the little fellow.—Chicago News.

Plenty In Reserve.

A man who had been fighting got two black eyes. Next morning he met a friend, who exclaimed:

"Why, Jack, where have you been? You've got two black eyes!"

"That's nothing," he replied. "I could have got plenty more, only I had no place to put them."

LOVE LURES HIM FAR

Trail of Pretty Maiden Takes Young Lawson Across Continent.

Portland, Ore., August 30.—Who says romance is dead or that there are no twentieth century Lochinvars? That little fight of young Lochinvar's was trivial compared to the journey of young Douglas Lawson, who, after a flight across the continent, a trip to Alaska and down to Seattle, finally found the maiden he was searching for at the Hotel Portland, duly guarded by her mother and a party of friends.

Young Lawson is the son of Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, of frenzied finance fame. Although importuned to return to Boston and pursue his education at Harvard, he has been flitting persistently, like th emoth about the candle, and braving parental displeasure.

The fair maid upon whom young Lawson is centering his attentions is pretty Marjorie Campbell, daughter of George Campbell, of Denver, an attractive young debutante of this Rocky Mountain region. She, with her mother and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Mayo and G. H. Mayo, of Boston, has been touring the North west after having made a trip to Alaska. Young Lawson also visited Alaska and there the friendship prospered, the only deterrent being a rival suitor in the person of young Lawson's best friend, E. D. Bert, of San Francisco.

It is learned Lawson has the best chance in the three-cornered fight for the girl's hand.

The Charleston Earthquake.

On the night of August 31, 1886, just 24 years ago the Charleston earthquake occurred. This shock was discussed by a number of citizens yesterday whose minds turned back to the night of the quake.

"Married life is like heaven!" exclaimed the bride. "Yes, I suppose we never know how it is going to turn out till we get there," said the Cynical Bachelor.

Mrs. N. C. Weatherly Will Do a Strictly Cash Business.

After September 15, Mrs. Weatherly will discontinue the credit business and sell strictly for cash on delivery. This step will be of mutual benefit, for it is evident, that if no money is put out for stationery, postage, collectors per cent and no lost accounts, she can sell goods much less than any house running on the credit system. Her goods will be marked for cash and sold for cash only. Mrs. Weatherly wishes to take the opportunity to thank the ladies for their liberal patronage and solicit a continuance of the same under the new cash system.

$3.50 Recipe Cures Weak Kidneys, Free

Relieves Urinary and Kidney Troubles, Backache, Straining, Swelling, Etc.

Stops Pain in the Bladder, Kidneys and Back.

Wouldn't it be nice within a week or so to begin to say goodbye forever to the scalding, dribbling, straining, or too frequent passage of urine; the forehead and the back-of-the-head aches; the stitches and pains in the back; the growing muscle weakness; spots before the eyes; yellow skin; sluggish bowels; swollen eyelids or ankles; leg cramps; unnatural short breath; sleeplessness and the despondency?

I have a recipe for these troubles that you can depend on, and if you want to make a quick recovery, you ought to write and get a copy of it. Many a doctor would charge you $3.50 just for writing this prescription, but I have it and will be glad to send it to you entirely free. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, K1339 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich, and I will send it by return mail in a plain envelope. As you will see when you get it, this recipe contains only pure, harmless remedies, but it has great healing and pain-conquering power.

It will quickly show its power once you use it, so I think you had better see what it is without delay. I will send you a copy free—you can use it and cure yourself at home

HELPING HUMANITY.

Father and Son Viewed Conditions From Opposite Standpoints.

Twenty years ago, says the Chicago Advance, a discouraged young doctor in a large city was visited once by his old father, who came up from a rural district to look after his boy.

"Well, son," he said, "how are you getting along?"

"I'm not getting along at all," was the disheartened reply. "I'm not doing a thing."

The old man's countenance fell, but he spoke of courage and patience and perseverance. Later in the day he went with his son to the free dispensary, where the young doctor had an unsalaried position and where he spent an hour or more every day. The father sat by, a silent but intensely interested spectator, while twenty-five poor unfortunates received help. The doctor forgot his visitor while he bent his skilled energies to the task, but hardly had the door closed on the last patient when the old man burst forth:

"I thought you told me that you were not doing anything! Why, if I had helped twenty-five people in a month as much as you have in one morning I would thank God my life counted for something."

"There isn't any money in it, though," explained the son, somewhat abashed. "Money!" the old man shouted, still scornfully. "Money! What is money in comparison with being of use to your fellow men? Never mind about money. You go right along at this work every day. I'll go back to the farm and gladly earn money enough to support you as long as I live—yes, and sleep sound every night with the thought that I have helped you to help your fellow men."

Don't Break Down.

Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Van de Sande, of Kirkland, Ill., writes: "That I did not break down, while enduring a most severe strain, for three months, is due wholly to Electric Bitters." Use them and enjoy health and strength. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

IN DEEP WELL WITH SNAKE.

Man and Reptile Fight 104 Feet Below Earth's Surface.

Waynesboro, Pa., Aug. 30.—To be in a well 104 feet deep and have a copperhead snake 3 1-2 feet long fall from the top and whiz by your head and drop at your feet is enough to shatter the nerves of any honest workingman.

Such was the experience of C. B. Layman, of this city, while engaged in cleaning out the well of B. R. Summer, superintedent of the Quincy Engine Company, at Quincy, near Waynesboro.

Mr. Layman, who was assisted in the work by Edward Knepper, also of Waynesboro, was getting the accumulation of dirt from the bottom of the well. Mr. Layman was at the bottom filling the buckets, while his friend was hoisting them out.

After they had been working on the job a short time, Mr. Layman felt something brush by his face and strike the dirt at his feet. It was a huge copperhead, which at once showed fight by striking at him. He jumped to one side and hit it with his shovel. It was one of the largest copperheads seen in the vicinity for many years. It is said that the snake must have had its haunts among the loose stones near the top of the well.

SHOE MAKING FACTS

No. 1

CRADDOCK
Soles — Counters — Heels

The life of any shoe depends on the integrity of the outer sole, the inner sole, the counter and the heel. No matter how handsome a shoe looks on the outside, or how well it feels on the foot—if the vitals are cheapened the whole shoe is weakened.

Right here is where many makers economize. No one can see the insole—no one can see the counter—no one can see any of the heel but the top lift—so they substitute a soft, spongy, flank leather for the insole and maybe use a counter made of canvas stiffened with glue and scraps of leather for the heel.

If there's any one virtue about the Craddock Shoe that is more pronounced than any other—it is the foundation. We have spared nothing to get the best. The sole (4) is the first grade of old method tanned steer's hide. The insole (5) is a slightly lighter piece of the same stock, selected for smoothness, pliability and toughness. Craddock counters (3) are cut fro stout grain leather; each is a single piece. Craddock heels are solid all through. The top lift alone costs more than the whole heel of some shoes of equal price.

We've made every vital part strong. How we carefully cut and fit the vamps and tops of firm, fine leather is another story.

The Craddock dealer in your town will tell you all about it. We shall tell it in type shortly. Watch for it.

GENUINE ECZEMA REMEDY

New Remedy That Cures Eczema Quickly.

Howard Gardner has sold dozens of jars of Hokara in the last few weeks, and although he offered to refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied purchaser, not one jar was returned.

While this is surprising in itself, yet the most marvelous thing is the reports of chronic cases of eczema that have been cured by this simple skin food. People who have suffered with scales, scabs and even bleeding itching have found relief in Hokara.

No matter where the eczema, pimples or other breaking out occurs, whether on the face, hands, legs or body, the application of Hokara will give quick relief, and even the worst or most chronic cases will be cured in a short time.

You can buy a liberal-sized jar today at the very low price of 25c and with every package goes a guarantee to refund the money if it is not satisfactory. Larger size 50c.

If the skin trouble is caused by impure blood or if the bowels are inactive, use Hokara Blood Tablets. They cool and cleanse the blood and regulate the bowels in a natural way.

My Corns Don't Hurt A Bit.

Tired, Ailing, Swollen, Smelly, Sweaty Feet, Corns, Callouses and Bunions, TIZ Cures Right Off.

Say good-bye to your corns the very first time you use TIZ. You will never know you have a corn, bunion or callous, or sweaty, tired, swollen, aching feet any more. It's just wonderful the way the pain vanishes. Rub the corn—hammer it with your fist if you will—no more pain after TIZ than if there had never been a blemish on your feet. Doesn't that sound good to you? Doesn't it? Then read this:

"The corns on either of my toes were as large as the tablets you make to cure them. Today there is no sign of corns on either foot and no soreness. It's an up-to-date Godsend.—Sam. A. Hoover, Progress, N. C.

Just use TIZ. It's not like anything else for the purpose you ever heard of. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely clog up the pores. TIZ cleans them out and keeps them clean. It works right off. You will feel better the very first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with it. TIZ is for sale at all druggists, 25 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walter Luther Dodge & Co., Dodge Building, Chicago, Illinois.

CAN'T STOP THEM LOVING HIM

Man of 100 Affinities Says He is Not to Blame.

New York, Aug. 30.—"If women are such fools as to write letters to me such as my wife found, I can't help it."

That is the philosophy of Roscoe H. Sanborn, whose wife discovered in his desk letters breathing love and devotion from 100 women. She says she will name most of them as corespondents in her suit for divorce and will make their letters exhibits.

Sanborn says his wife may do as she pleases. That the letters are innocent when the circumstances under which they were penned are considered is his contention, and he says his wife is bringing suit to get advertising pending her return to the stage.

"I am not to blame if women to whom I go to sell real estate like me," said Sanborn. "All of the letters are from customers and show nothing wrong though they may be a bit more than friendly. In the real estate business you have to jolly people, and not a single one of these letters shows that I ever kept a date.'

In explanation of her action in boosting the number of her husband's "affinities" from 6 to 100, Mrs. Sanborn today said her detective had brought her additional letters.

"And I am not sure there won't be 200," he said, "before we get through."

It is alleged that Sanborn's sweethearts were so numerous that apparently he did not trust to memory and had to keep a record of their names in a notebook.

"He had no memory at all," commented his wife, "and never seemed interested in any topic. He could not carry a conversation beyond the most formal exchange of commonplaces, and his manners were simply brutal. Whenever he was with me he was thinking of some other woman."

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing, it may be either acute or chronic, but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. "One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy made me well," said J. Sibbull, of Grand View, Wis. Commence taking it now." Holton Drug Co.

Silly Question.

The two summer boarders were fighting flies and mosquitoes on the front porch of the old farm house.

"Were you here last summer?" asked the latest arrival.

"Say," retorted the other, "do you think I'd be here now if I had been here last summer?"—Chicago News.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmert, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health. She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few week's ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.

PARTY CONTROL FOR ROOSEVELT.

Indications That State Convention Will Do as He Wishes.

New York Times.

Unless President Taft should change his proclaimed attitude in the Roosevelt "Old Guard" imbroglio, the progressive element, headed by Colonel Roosevelt, will control the Republican State Convention. This prediction is based on careful observations in the course of a trip made last week by a representative of the Times through some pivotal sections of the State. He had opportunity at this time to talk with leaders of both parties and to gauge public sentiment in the localities he traversed.

Another discovery which will startle some Republicans in the State was the indication that the Republican leaders had virtually abandoned hope of electing their State ticket and that they were concentrating their forces in a fight to retain control of the next Legislature ,which will elect a United States Senator to succeed Senator Depew, and undertake a new apportionment of the Congressional districts throughout the State. To make certain the election of a Republican majority to the Legislature the Republican leaders in some localities are making frantic efforts to patch up deals with the Democrats, with a view of swapping Republican votes for local and State offices against Democratic votes for the Republican candidates for seats in the next Legislature.

Two Short Words,

"The best, well describes the satisfaction every user feels when he tries Vick's Croup and Pneumonia Salve for his head or chest, cold on his croupy child. It is a comfort, a cure and a joy. Try a jar and get your money back if not pleased.

"Give you any reason to believe him?"

"Gave me a tolerable good cigar."—Washington Herald.

A Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life. She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith. It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Holton Drug Co.

Of Course.

"What's the matter?"

"Cold, or something in my head."

"Must be a cold, old man."—September Lippincott's.
